

Ag Business with Mrs. Oellerich

What is this class about?

This course will develop your understanding of the agricultural industry relating to the United States and world marketplace. Instructional units include: business ownership types, planning and organizing the agribusiness, financing the agribusiness, keeping and using records in an agribusiness, operating the agribusiness, agricultural law, taxes, and developing employability skills.

What is expected of me in class?

In order for our class to run smoothly there are certain things I expect of you. They are...

- 1. Learning to Do : Students are expected to participate in all classroom activities.
- 2. Doing to Learn: Students are expected to be prepared for all class activities.
- 3. Earning to Live: In this classroom EVERYTHING is earned. This includes grades, privileges, & respect.
- 4. Living to Serve: Students are expected to respect their fellow classmates and display characteristics of a leader.
- 5. Rid yourself of distractions (food, drinks, phones, backpacks). Phones will stay in backpacks or the group holder, and backpacks will be under the table in front of your feet.

If you decide not to meet these expectations, there will be consequences that vary in size and scope, depending on the action in the student handbook.

What supplies do I need?

What should I already know?

You should have an idea how businesses produce and market their products.

Can I go?

You will have THREE hall passes each quarter. You are responsible to keep track of them and use them wisely.

What if I am absent?

1. Check the "Absent Box" for your Buddy Sheet.
2. After reading the sheet, visit with a neighbor or Mrs. O to confirm what's expected.
3. When you complete the homework turn in the Buddy Sheet, too.
4. Follow the guidelines in the handbook for the make-up work policy.
